

How long does it take until my domain is registered/tra...

Author:
Your-Site.com

Created On: 16 Feb 2004 03:08 PM

We register your domain as soon as we receive payment for the registration. If you are paying via creditcard, we process the order right away. If your card is sucesfully charged, then we register it. If you are paying via check or money order, we wait until we receive them in the mail before registering your domain. The domain is typically live within 24 hours of it's registration.